

Coaching Talent Matched That Of What Buckeyes Put On Field

Woody Assembled One Of Best Staffs Ever

By MARK REA
Buckeye Sports Bulletin Editor

Sometime in the future Ohio State may once again enjoy a national championship team that possesses the talent of the 1968 squad.

But while experts feel it will be difficult to put together such a powerful group of players again, they all agree it will be nearly impossible to bring together the kind of coaching staff the university assembled that year.

Starting with Woody Hayes, the winningest head coach ever at OSU and fifth winningest in NCAA history, the staff that year has been rated by The Sporting News as one of the top five collegiate staffs in the history of the game.

Joining Hayes on the OSU staff that season were defensive coordinator Lou McCullough, offensive coordinator and tackles coach Hugh Hindman, ends coach Esco Sarkkinen, guards and centers coach Earle Bruce, defensive line coach Bill Mallory, defensive backfield coach Lou Holtz, offensive backfield coach George Chaump, freshman coach Glenn "Tiger" Ellison and cadet coach Rudy Hubbard.

"It was as good a staff as you would ever want," said McCullough, now retired from his post as commissioner of the Trans-American Athletic Conference. "We did a lot of work together, but we had a lot of fun together, too."

Holtz, now head coach at Notre Dame, agreed.

"We had some great coaches that year, the greatest being Coach Hayes," he said. "Everything was always positive with that staff. We got along real well because we had respect for one another."

Bruce, who later went on to succeed Hayes as head coach at OSU, echoed Holtz's sentiments about the '68 staff.

"There were no jealousies at all," Bruce said. "We all pulled together toward one common goal. There were probably some other staffs which were very good. But not like every member of the one we had in '68. They were all super coaches."

Most of the former assistants remember the national championship season well. The Bucks sailed through Big Ten competition and then upset top-ranked Southern Cal and Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson in the Rose Bowl. What the coaches remember best is the enthusiasm and confidence displayed by that year's sophomore class, which included such Buckeye greats as Rex Kern, John Brockington, Jim Stillwagon and Jack Tatum.

Sarkkinen, now retired in Columbus after more than 30 years as an assistant. "Most of the varsity coaches in 1967 used that class — who were freshmen then — as scout team personnel. That's when we began to realize we had something special. As freshmen they could manhandle just about anyone on the varsity. It was almost embarrassing sometimes."

Hindman, a former OSU athletic director now in private business in Columbus, said, "I don't think those sophomores had a nerve in their bodies. They just dared anybody to beat them. They really didn't feel like they could lose to anyone."

Holtz remembered the "special feeling among those athletes. Everyone remembers them as great athletes, and they were. But what a lot of people forget is the hard work and sacrifice of those players in order to become as good as they were." Sarkkinen said he found out the confidence the sophomores had in themselves when he visited the locker room after a freshman game.

"I went into the dressing room and congratulated them," he said, "and you know what they were asking me? They wanted to know where we would be staying next year when we went to the Rose Bowl. Not if we went, but when we went to the Rose Bowl. That tells you a little bit about that team."

According to most, the biggest game on the regular-season schedule came in Ohio Stadium against Purdue. The Boilermakers featured Heisman candidate Leroy Keyes along with strong-armed quarterback Mike Phipps and powerful fullback Perry Williams.

In addition, they were the defending Big Ten champions, were ranked number one in the country at the time, and had thumped the Bucks 41-6 one year earlier. It was a game for which the coaching staff spent several months preparing.

"When Coach Hayes hired me the preceding February, he told me that Purdue was the number one priority," Holtz said.

Mallory, now serving his 10th season as head coach at Indiana, said he spent several hundred hours preparing for the Boilers. "We really studied them, studied them like we never studied a team before," he said. "By the time the game rolled around, I think we knew Purdue better than Purdue knew itself."

McCullough went so far as to make up his own film on the Boilermakers.

"I used all their game films from the year before that I could round up and made up the film with their five best running plays, their five best passing plays and about 20 plays we expected

BADGER HUNT PROVES VERY SUCCESSFUL

By MARK REA
Buckeye Sports Bulletin Editor

After two straight heart-thumping wins, Ohio State got a bit of a breather against Wisconsin, dealing the winless Badgers a 43-8 thrashing in Madison.

The victory allowed the Buckeyes to stay undefeated in seven games overall and five Big Ten conference contests. OSU kept pace with archrival Michigan, a 36-0 winner over the Big Ten's other winless team, Illinois.

The Buckeyes played the entire game with sophomore backup Ron Maciejowski at quarterback in relief of starter Rex Kern. Kern, who had back surgery just a few months before the season began, was knocked out of action the previous week against Michigan State.

As things turned out, Kern's services were not needed. Maciejowski filled in admirably, rushing for 124 yards and three touchdowns while throwing for 153 yards and another TD.

"I think we owe some gratitude to Ron Maciejowski," said head coach Woody Hayes after the game. "He came right in there and we never missed a beat on offense. He ran for over 100 yards, passed for over 100 yards. I don't know what more we could have asked from that young man."

In addition to Maciejowski's heroics, the Buckeyes got another outstanding performance from junior fullback Jim Otis. He carried the ball 18 times for 94 yards and two touchdowns.

Another offensive star was halfback Larry Zelina, who rushed four times for 37 yards, a 9.3 yards-per-carry average, and caught five passes for 120 yards and a touchdown.

While the Buckeye offense was busily piling up 468 total yards, the Ohio State defense was putting the wraps on Wisconsin's offense. Badger quarterback John Ryan managed to complete only six of 15 passes in the game for 99 yards, while Wisconsin garnered only 187 total yards all afternoon.

The game was played under conditions in sharp contrast to the previous week's Ohio State game against Michigan State. The Buckeyes had handed the Spartans a 25-20 loss in front of a capacity crowd at Ohio Stadium on a balmy, 70-degree afternoon. The temperature in Wisconsin hovered around the 32-degree mark most of the day and only 40,972 fans braved the cold weather in Camp Randall Stadium to watch the game.

The Buckeyes didn't waste much time getting the lead in the game. The Badgers won the coin toss and elected to receive but couldn't move the ball and punted after three plays.

LEADING THE CHARGE — If you had been a halfback for the 1968 Ohio State team, you would have enjoyed running behind fullback Jim Otis (35) and tackle Rufus Mayes (72). In a 43-8 win over Wisconsin that year, for example, the Buckeyes rushed 61 times for 301 yards, averaging nearly five yards every time they ran it.

The Bucks took over on their own 37-yard line and Maciejowski immediately went to work. After a 15-yard personal-foul call on the Badgers following a 12-yard loss, Maciejowski passed to Zelina in the flat and the sophomore took the ball 37 yards to the Wisconsin 23 before getting pushed out of bounds.

On the next play, Maciejowski fired a 13-yard strike to sophomore split end Bruce Jankowski, one of five receptions in the game for the Fairlawn, N.J., product. That put the ball at the Wisconsin 10, but the drive fizzled from there and senior Jim Roman came in to boot a 28-yard field goal, giving OSU a 3-0 lead at the 11:21 mark of the first quarter.

The Badgers could not generate any offense on their next drive and the Buckeyes took over again, this time from their own 31. Otis softened the Badgers' defense with a pair of two-yard lunges up the middle before Maciejowski and Zelina hooked up again. This time the pass play covered 42 yards to the Badgers' 23-yard line.

Later in the drive, faced with a fourth-and-three play, Maciejowski went back to pass and found sophomore tight end Jan White crossing over the middle for a seven-yard gain and a first down. Two plays later it was the Maciejowski-Zelina combination again, hooking for an eight-yard touchdown pass. Roman added the extra point, giving Ohio State a 10-0 lead with 5:08 remaining in the first period.

The Buckeyes looked like they might blow things out of proportion early when Wisconsin fumbled the ensuing kickoff and sophomore Doug Adams pounced on the loose ball for the Buckeyes.

But the Badgers responded by sacking Maciejowski on first down and then intercepting his pass on second down to take the ball back.

Neither team managed to get much offense going in the remainder of the half. The Badgers did finally enter OSU territory on two occasions in the second period. The first possession ended with a punt and the second was stopped when junior cornerback Ted Provost recovered a Wisconsin fumble.

The Buckeyes got one chance to score in the final 37 seconds of the first half. After Adams had recovered a fumble at the Wisconsin 28, Maciejowski threw an incompletion and then rolled right for a two-yard gain on second down. The Bucks took a timeout with 16 seconds left and then the sophomore quarterback hit White for a 23-yard gain to the three-yard line. However, an OSU holding penalty wiped out the gain, sending the ball all the way back to the 41-yard line.

Faced with third and long, Maciejowski scrambled for 28 yards on the next play, but time ran out before the Buckeyes could score.

Hayes and his coaching staff evidently had some choice words for the Scarlet and Gray at halftime. The Buckeyes exploded from the locker room with a vengeance and proceeded to put 33 second-half points on the scoreboard.

The Bucks started quickly when Zelina took the opening kickoff 28 yards to the Ohio State 33-yard line. Maciejowski mixed plays well, rolling out for a seven-yard gain and then handing off to Otis for a five-yard gainer. Two plays later, on third and five, Maciejowski called his own number and responded with a 13-yard gain. Two plays later, he picked up 10 yards on a keeper and followed that with a 21-yard gain around left end to put the ball at Wisconsin's seven-yard line.

Maciejowski ultimately finished off the drive himself with a five-yard dance into the end zone. Roman's PAT was perfect and the Buckeyes led 17-0.

The Badgers tried to muster some offense, but OSU junior defensive end Mike Radtke sacked Ryan for a 10-yard loss on a third-down play.

Ohio State took over possession again and never looked back. On the first play, Maciejowski found favorite receiver Zelina for a 12-yard gain before finding Jankowski again for six yards. Two plays to Otis gained a total of 11 yards before Zelina took a handoff and plowed 17 yards to the Badgers' two.

Otis bulled into the end zone from there and when Roman added the extra point, Ohio State enjoyed a 24-0 advantage with 6:54 remaining in the third quarter.

The Buckeyes' third touchdown of the third period came after a series in which OSU junior defensive end Dave Whitfield sacked Ryan twice. Ohio State got good field position at the 50 and marched to score in just five plays. The biggest play was the first, when Maciejowski rolled around right end for 25 yards. After that, Otis took over and scored his second TD of the game on another two-yard run. Roman's PAT failed this time, but the Bucks had already built a 30-0 lead.

The Badgers finally got something going near the end of the third quarter, driving 68 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. The big play in the drive was a 37-yard pass from Ryan to Tom McCauley, the Badgers' longest play of the day. Eight plays later, Ryan took the ball in from the one-yard line on fourth down. Stu Voight reeled in the two-point conversion pass from Ryan to cut OSU's lead to 30-8.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Badgers tried to get back into the contest by trying an onside kick. It backfired when junior Alan Jack recovered for the Buckeyes near midfield and Ohio State took just six plays to score another touchdown.

Maciejowski started things off again, rolling left for a gain of 26 yards. Two plays later he found Zelina for a 21-yard pass to the Wisconsin 10, and three plays after that, Maciejowski tucked the ball away and went in from the one for the score. Roman's conversion kick was no good, leaving the score at 36-8 in favor of the Buckeyes.

OSU tallied one last touchdown in the game with mostly second and third-string players. Senior quarterback Bill Long directed most of the final scoring drive, which started on the Badger 26 when Wisconsin gave the ball up on downs. The touchdown was set up by a personal foul call on the Badgers that wiped out an interception by McCauley in the end zone. The penalty gave the Buckeyes a first down at the 10-yard line and Maciejowski re-entered the game just long enough to score the touchdown on that first-down play with a roll around left end. Roman added the final PAT, giving the Buckeyes a 43-8 victory.

scored on a 14-yard run up the middle and you should have heard the roar because that put us up 12-0.

"I think there were a lot of tears coming out of coaches' eyes on that play because of what that young man went through that week and then to come in and make a great play like that, it was touching."

Another backup quarterback gave Bruce a fond memory later that season when Ron Maciejowski broke a 24-24 tie with Illinois on a perfectly executed passing play to Larry Zelina.

"That was a 'pipe' pass, an old play," Bruce explained. "Basically, the flanker back lines up in the slot and fakes to the outside and goes right back up the middle. They timed it just right and that turned out to be a huge play."

Ohio State hung on to win 31-24 and stayed perfect at 5-0 with the victory.

The climax of the season was a 27-16 win in the Rose Bowl. Bruce said USC running back O.J. Simpson was as good as advertised.

"He broke an 80-yarder on us," Bruce said. "He was an outstanding back. But Tatum also caught him, from behind on one play and we came back from 10-0. We showed how much talent we had that day because we totally outplayed them in the second half.

"That was just a great, great team. There are moments from that year I'm sure I'll never forget. Every year is a great year to be a Buckeye, but that was the best."
