

2020 5-Star G Kateri Poole Commits To Ohio State Women's Basketball Program

The Ohio State women's basketball program landed one of the nation's top-rated prospects on Friday afternoon when Bronx (N.Y.) Monsignor Scanlan five-star point guard Kateri Poole pledged her services to head coach Kevin McGuff.

Congratulations to Kateri Poole (@kateripoole5) on her commitment to Ohio State University (@OhioStateWBB); go Buckeyes! #NewHeightsNYC pic.twitter.com/YFQIWVeVsT

— New Heights Youth Inc. (@NewHeightsNYC) July 26, 2019

The 5-8 Poole is considered the seventh-best point guard and No. 16 overall prospect in the class of 2020, as she led the Crusaders to the state championship game and was named second-team all-state by the New York State Sportswriters Association and USA Today last season.

Poole becomes the third member of Ohio State's 2020 recruiting class, joining Westerville (Ohio) South three-star teammates Gabby Hutcherson (forward) and Anyssa Jones (guard).