

2020 Houston 5-Star RB Zachary Evans Includes Ohio State Among Top 5

Though he's never been to campus, Houston North Shore five-star running back Zachary Evans included Ohio State in his Top 5 on Tuesday night alongside Alabama, Georgia, LSU and Oklahoma.

pic.twitter.com/R1FiMfNaIk

— T H R E E (@Runzekerun01) May 28, 2019

The 5-11, 200-pound Evans is considered the top-rated running back and No. 1 overall prospect in the Class of 2020, as he rushed for 1,785 yards and 29 touchdowns to lead the Mustangs to the state championship last fall.

Evans — who notably squats 605 pounds, runs a 4.51-second 40-yard dash and has a 34-inch vertical jump — shared the MaxPreps Junior Player of the Year award last season with USC four-star quarterback commit Bryce Young. He is a two-time The Opening Finals invitee.

Most projections had Evans favoring the in-state Texas Longhorns, so their omission comes as a bit of a surprise. Meanwhile, Ohio State running backs coach Tony Alford has made quite an impression from afar, while other staff members — including offensive coordinator/tight ends coach Kevin Wilson and defensive graduate assistant Kenny Anunike — made their presence felt during satellite camps in Houston during the last two summers.

Though the Buckeyes are set to host California five-star running back Kendall Milton for an official visit this coming weekend and are expected to receive an official visit from Arizona five-star Bijan Robinson next month, Evans' announcement surely gives the staff another elite option as it looks to bring on at least two running backs this cycle.

[divider line_type="Full Width Line" line_thickness="2" divider_color="default"][nectar\_btn size="jumbo" button\_style="regular" button\_color\_2="Accent-Color" icon\_family="none" url="http://www.buckeyesports.com/boards/" text="Join The Conversation"\]](http://www.buckeyesports.com/boards/)