

2021 Lewis Center (Ohio) Olentangy Three-Star Center Toby Wilson Commits To Ohio State As Preferred Walk-On

Lewis Center (Ohio) Olentangy three-star center Toby Wilson announced on Wednesday he has accepted a preferred walk-on offer from Ohio State, where he'll join his father, Buckeyes offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson.

Beyond blessed to announce that I will be furthering my academic and athletic career at THE Ohio State University! Thank you to all of my coaches, teammates, and family who have helped me along the way to achieve this! #GoBucks pic.twitter.com/QbtQk2yzRn

The 6-3, 273-pound Wilson is considered the 25th-best center and No. 2,230 prospect overall in the class of 2021. He garnered second-team all-Ohio Capital Conference Cardinal Division honors for the Braves last season.

Wilson, who camped at Ohio State in June 2019, chose the Buckeyes over scholarship offers from programs such as Air Force, Akron, Army, Navy, North Texas, Toledo, West Virginia and Western Kentucky. He eventually plans to follow in his father's footsteps by becoming a coach after his playing days are over.
