McCullough is joining his father, Deland McCullough, who is Indiana's running backs coach, as well as his two brothers, Deland McCullough II and Daeh McCullough, who are both set to go to the Hoosiers.

Deland II announced Saturday that he will be transferring from Miami (Ohio) to Indiana, while Daeh is a four-star safety recruit in the 2023 class who is also committed to the Hoosiers.

Dasan McCullough is the No. 50 overall recruit and the sixth-best athlete in the 2022 class. He is also the top recruit in the state of Indiana, and is the highest-rated commit for the Hoosiers (.9784) in the modern recruiting era, according to 247Sports.

Ohio State still holds five top 50 commitments for the 2022 class, including some key defensive commits in Jacksonville (Fla.) Robert E. Lee five-star cornerback Jaheim Singletary, Kettering (Ohio) Archbishop Alter five-star linebacker C.J. Hicks and Marysville, Ohio four-star linebacker Gabe Powers.
