

Banks, Teague, Gaoteote Unavailable For The Game

Ohio State will be without a starting cornerback and backup running back against Michigan, with Sevyn Banks and Master Teague III missing the contest with undisclosed injuries.

The Buckeyes will turn to Cameron Brown to fill the spot opposite of freshman Denzel Burke and will rely on TreVeyon Henderson and Miyan Williams to carry the load in the backfield.

Palaie Gaoteote IV will also miss this afternoon's game, leaving Ohio State with just four linebackers in the active roster: Steele Chambers, Tommy Eichenberg, Teradja Mitchell and Cody Simon.
