

Big Ten Media Days: Ohio State Takes The Main Stage On Wednesday

On Wednesday, representatives from Ohio State football, including head coach Ryan Day, quarterback C.J. Stroud, wide receiver Jaxon Smith-Njigba and safety Ronnie Hickman, will be available to the media at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.

Day will be the first Buckeye to appear at Big Ten Media Days. He will start with an individual podium from 12:30 p.m. to 12:45 p.m. The next appearance from Ohio State will be Stroud, Smith-Njigba and Hickman at breakout tables from 1:15 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

After a brief pause in the action from the Scarlet and Gray, Day will sit at a breakout table from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. The four representatives will also appear on the Big Ten Network stage at an undisclosed time. They will speak with BTN studio representatives on that desk, including former Ohio State linebacker Joshua Perry.
