

BSB Reprints: Ohio State Completes National Championship Chase Beating Alabama, Oregon In Inaugural College Football Playoff

[image_with_animation image_url="31144" animation="None" hover_animation="none" alignment="" img_link_target="_blank" border_radius="none" box_shadow="none" image_loading="default" max_width="100%" max_width_mobile="default" img_link="https://www.buckeyesports.com/reports/BSBReprints_2015_NC.pdf"]

Following Ohio State's victory over Clemson and subsequent loss to Alabama in the College Football Playoff national championship, we took a look back through the BSB archives to the last time the Buckeyes played in the final game - a 42-20 victory over Oregon.

Cardale Jones began the 2014 season as the third-string quarterback but finished it as the starter on a historic national title team, following a preseason injury to Braxton Miller and a season-ending injury to backup J.T. Barrett against Michigan.

Jones and tailback Ezekiel Elliott led the Buckeyes on an incredible postseason run sparked by a 59-0 trouncing of Wisconsin, which was followed by an upset of Alabama in a semifinal game of the inaugural College Football Playoff, and then the championship victory over the Ducks.

This installment of BSB Reprints features our in-depth coverage of both the big wins over Alabama and Oregon, including analyses, quotes from players and coaches, media reactions, statistics, columns and more.

[divider line_type="No Line" custom_height="60"]Download PDF
[divider line_type="Full Width Line" line_thickness="2" divider_color="default"]Join The Conversation