

BSB Reprints: Ohio State's Guiton Got Best Of Cal's Goff In 2013

[image_with_animation image_url="12924" alignment="" animation="None" border_radius="none" box_shadow="none" max_width="100%" img_link="http://www.buckeyesports.com/reports/BSBReprints_Goff.pdf"]After a standout career at California, Jared Goff went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2016 NFL draft before leading the Los Angeles Rams to the Super Bowl this year.

On Sept. 14, 2013, though, an Ohio State cult hero got the best of the future NFL star. On that day at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley, Calif., the Buckeyes, led by backup signal caller Kenny Guiton, beat Goff's Golden Bears, 52-34, behind four passing touchdowns from Guiton, including a 90-yarder to Devin Smith.

Goff, for his part, was 31 of 53 for 371 yards with three touchdowns and an interception in the loss.

These reprints are a continuation of the series BSB printed during the 2018 season looking at the evolution of the Ohio State quarterback. With the campaign wrapped up, we're shifting our focus to take a look at some of the great quarterbacks who have faced the Buckeyes during the BSB era.

Click the button below or the image on the left to open the latest BSB reprints.[divider line_type="No Line" custom_height="60"][nectar_btn size="large" button_style="regular" button_color_2="Accent-Color" icon_family="default_arrow" url="http://www.buckeyesports.com/reports/BSBReprints_Goff.pdf" text="Download PDF"]