

Former Ohio State Guard Kaelynn Satterfield Transfers To Xavier

After entering the transfer portal on Feb. 6, guard Kaelynn Satterfield made the exit out of Ohio State official, announcing on Twitter that she will be heading to Xavier.

📷 pic.twitter.com/XCsGY88yfw

— Kae Satterfield (@Officialkaesat) February 28, 2020

“The year wasn’t anything as expected and I started to lose myself,” Satterfield wrote. “Fortunately for me I have since found a school and program that made me feel at home.”

Satterfield came to Ohio State as a four-star guard out of Christ The King High School in New York. She appeared in 18 games, but saw limited action, averaging 2.4 points per game and 1.8 rebounds per game in 8.1 minutes per contest.

“I appreciate Kae’s time and contributions this year,” Ohio State head coach Kevin McGuff said in a press release announcing Satterfield’s transfer. “I wish her nothing but great success moving forward.”

Ohio State is now down to six of its seven freshmen from the coveted 2019 recruiting class that was ranked in the top five nationally.

Xavier is struggling mightily this season, boasting a 3-24 record overall, and a 2-14 record in the Big East.

For four free issues of the weekly print edition of Buckeye Sports Bulletin, no card required, sign up at the link here: <http://www.buckeyesports.com/subscribe-4issue-trial/>