

Former Ohio State Tight End Nick Vannett To Sign With Denver Broncos, Per Reports

As first reported by NFL Network's Ian Rapoport, former Ohio State tight end Nick Vannett has agreed to a two-year, $5.7 million deal with the Denver Broncos.

Source: The #Broncos have signed former #Steelers and #Seahawks TE Nick Vannett on a 2-year deal.

— Ian Rapoport (@RapSheet) March 21, 2020

The 27-year-old Vannett played for the Buckeyes from 2011-15, helping the team to the College Football Playoff national championship during his redshirt junior season. He was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft, and has caught 61 passes for 591 yards and four touchdowns in four seasons with the Seahawks and Pittsburgh Steelers.

Vannett will be reunited in Denver with former Ohio State tight end Jeff Heurman, who also played an integral role in the Buckeyes' aforementioned title run, as well as defensive tackle Dre'Mont Jones and defensive back Tyvis Powell.

For four free issues of the weekly print edition of Buckeye Sports Bulletin, no card required, sign up at the link here: <http://www.buckeyesports.com/subscribe-4issue-trial/>

[divider line_type="Full Width Line" line_thickness="2" divider_color="default"] [nectar_btn size="jumbo" button_style="regular" button_color_2="Accent-Color" icon_family="none" url="http://www.buckeyesports.com/boards/" text="Join The Conversation"]