

Marvin Harrison Jr., J.T. Tuimoloau, Cade Stover To Represent Ohio State At Big Ten Media Days

When Big Ten Media Days take place at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis from July 26-27, Ohio State will be represented by head coach Ryan Day along with wide receiver Marvin Harrison Jr., defensive end J.T. Tuimoloau and tight end Cade Stover.

Harrison and Tuimoloau are both entering their third seasons with the Buckeyes and coming off first-team All-Big Ten seasons. Harrison finished last year with 77 catches for 1,263 yards and 14 touchdowns, leading Ohio State in every category. On the defensive side, Tuimoloau recorded 28 tackles (10.5 for loss) with two sacks, two interceptions, a pass breakup, a force fumble, a fumble recovery and a touchdown.

Stover, meanwhile, is headed into his fifth season at Ohio State. He posted the most production by an Ohio State tight end in nearly 20 years last season, hauling in 36 catches for 406 yards and five touchdowns as a team captain for the Buckeyes.

Ohio State's portion at Big Ten Media Days will take place on July 26, with Day holding a press conference at 12:30 p.m. followed by individual podium sessions for Day and each player in attendance.

The Buckeyes will be joined on that day by Illinois, Iowa, Michigan State, Northwestern, Penn State and Rutgers, while Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Purdue and Wisconsin will be on the next day.
