

Michigan Commit Tristan Bounds Says He Wants To ‘Kick The St Out Of Ohio State’

Wallingford (Ct.) Choate Rosemary Hall three-star offensive tackle Tristan Bounds, a Michigan commit for the 2021 class, went on a podcast done by The Wolverine to talk about a variety of topics, one of which involved his goals for when he arrives in Ann Arbor.

“After I take a couple days to take it in and realize what I really just did, and that’s commit to one of the best universities in the country as well as a football powerhouse, Bounds said . “I’ve been pretty adamant about this. I don’t want to lose any games. I want to win national championships. I want to kick the st out of Ohio State. Those are my goals.”

Bounds is currently rated as the No. 663 prospect and No. 56 offensive tackle in the 2021 class, and is part of a Wolverine class that currently ranks sixth in the country, five spots below Ohio State’s top-ranked class.

The comment by Bounds struck a chord with some of Ohio State’s incoming commits, including five-star quarterback Kyle McCord, five-star running back TreVeyon Henderson and four-star defensive end Tunmise Adeleye.

Should not have said that <https://t.co/amWp3lLhQ1>
