

NFL Recap: How Did The Buckeyes Around The League Do In Week 13?

After each week, Buckeye Sports Bulletin will look at how former Ohio State football players performed in their NFL games over the previous weekend. From Justin Fields to Malcolm Jenkins, there are quite a few Buckeyes around the league. We offer updates on all of them.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS vs. DALLAS COWBOYS

The New Orleans Saints looked sluggish in a 27-17 loss to the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday Night Football last week. However, Marshon Lattimore further solidified himself as one of the best cornerbacks in the NFL, finishing the game with eight total tackles, three pass breakups and an interception.

While New Orleans didn't get the win, Lattimore was a big reason Dallas' offense only scored 20 points as the Saints got 11 third-down stops on 13 tries. The former NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and three-time Pro Bowler will continue to anchor his team's pass defense along with former Buckeyes Malcolm Jenkins, Eli Apple and Pete Werner.

Ezekiel Elliott carried the ball 13 times for 45 yards and accounted for two receptions for two yards. The former Ohio State running back didn't keep pace with his performances in week's prior, but the Cowboys will rely on his consistency in future weeks.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM vs. OAKLAND RAIDERS

Washington defeated the Las Vegas 17-15 on Sunday evening and some former Buckeyes did their best to contribute to the Football Team's two-point victory.

Former Buckeyes and Washington receivers Terry McLaurin and Curtis Samuel struggled to find a rhythm against the Raiders, with McLaurin catching three passes for 22 yards and Samuel adding two carries and one reception for minus-2 yards.

Still, Washington head coach Ron Rivera trusted Samuel to pick up a crucial first down on the Football Team's final drive, which eventually turned into a Brian Johnson 48-yard game-winning field goal.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

Nick Bosa is the NFC sack leader.

In the middle of the second quarter, Seattle quarterback Russell Wilson looked to capitalize on a favorable field position. Linebacker Bobby Wagner intercepted Jimmy Garoppolo and returned the ball to the 49ers' 31-yard line.

That's where Bosa made a significant play for his team. The feared pass-rusher was able to blast through Seattle's offensive, causing Wilson to fumble the football. Bosa was credited with a 23-yard sack.

The Pro Bowler leads the NFC with 12 sacks and has an NFL-best 102 sack yards. Despite his efforts, San Francisco lost their fourth straight game to Seattle, 30-23, and fell to 6-6 overall.
