This will be the first time these programs have faced off. Elsewhere on the nonconference schedule, Ohio State will host Texas A&M on Nov. 10 in the first game of a home-and-home series, with the Buckeyes set to play at College Station next season, and will host Western Michigan on Nov. 19.

Ohio State will then play in the Emerald Coast Classic at Northwestern Florida State College from Nov. 24-25, set to face Alabama in the semifinal with a matchup against either Oregon or Santa Clara in the next round. The Buckeyes will also face West Virginia in a neutral-site matchup in Cleveland on Dec. 30.

Ohio State's Big Ten slate has already been announced, with the Buckeyes set to host Illinois, Maryland and Purdue and play at Iowa, Michigan State and Northwestern, with home and away matchups against Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Penn State, Rutgers and Wisconsin.
