

Ohio State Cornerback Cameron Brown Leaves Game On Cart With Leg Injury

During a Penn State touchdown in the fourth quarter by wide receiver Jahan Dotson, Ohio State junior cornerback Cameron Brown went down on a play off the ball and had to leave the game on a medical cart.

The play occurred with 14:30 to go in the fourth quarter and the Buckeyes up 31-19 over the Nittany Lions, pending the result of the extra point. Brown was down on the ground grabbing his leg in pain.

Brown had not registered a stat in the game and had one tackle in Ohio State's 52-17 win over Nebraska on Oct. 24.

The third-year player for Ohio State came into this season with 15 total tackles, three tackles for loss and a pass breakup.
