Bell leaves the Buckeyes after finishing second on the team with 10.9 points per game and third with 4.4 rebounds per game. She also hit a team-high 56 three pointers while shooting 39.4 percent from the field and 31.8 percent from three.

The five-star prospect out of Canton McKinley began the season as a starter, but after missing a game against Sacramento State due to a suspension, she remained a key member of the bench and averaged 21.0 minutes per game on the season.

Florida Gulf Coast is coming off a remarkable 2019-20 season where the team went 30-3 and would have likely secured a berth into the NCAA tournament regardless of the results of the ASUN tournament.

Bell is currently ineligible to play in the 2020-21 season unless there is an appeal to the NCAA.
