Jallow – a former four-star prospect from Bloomington (Ind.) North – averaged 2.8 points, 2.2 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 94 career games (28 starts) with the Buckeyes. He will have two years of eligibility remaining.

“Musa has been a joy to coach these past four years,” Ohio State head coach Chris Holtmann said in a statement. “He is a talented player and a tremendous person. Despite battling injuries these past two years, he has made a very positive impact on our team. Musa graduated and will always be a Buckeye. We will help and support him in any way.”
