“Football embodies so many things to me,” Haubeil wrote, “Sportsmanship, family, brotherhood, love, passion, sacrifice and so much more. It has provided me with unimaginable opportunities. I will forever cherish the relationships I have created with coaches, teammates, students, fans, and all of Buckeye Nation.

“I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to announce that I am declaring for the 2021 NFL Draft.”

Haubeil connected on five of his seven field-goal attempts in 2020, with a long of 43 yards. He also made all 24 of his extra-point tries in a season where the senior kicker dealt with a groin injury and missed the national championship against Alabama due to a positive COVID-19 test.

Over his collegiate career, Haubeil hit 28 of his 35 field goals, including a long of 55 yards against Northwestern in 2019. He made all 146 point-after attempts.
