

Ohio State Remains At No. 4 In Latest College Football Playoff Rankings

Not much changed during Ohio State's off week following its cancellation against Illinois due to positive COVID-19 tests, with the Buckeyes staying put at No. 4 behind Alabama, Notre Dame and Clemson, respectively.

Following Ohio State was, once again, Texas A&M and Florida at No. 5 and No. 6, with Cincinnati also staying at No. 7.

Ohio State was one of five teams ranked in the top 25 for the second streak, with the others being Indiana (No. 12), Northwestern (No. 14), Wisconsin (No. 16), and Iowa (No. 19).

The Buckeyes currently sit at 4-0 and practiced Tuesday with the intent on traveling to East Lansing and playing against Michigan State Saturday. Elsewhere in the top four, the Crimson Tide faces off against LSU, the Fighting Irish plays Syracuse and the Tigers take on Virginia Tech.
