

Ohio State Set For 7:30 Kick With Notre Dame

Ohio State's marquee non-conference game in 2023 now officially has a start time and television selection.

The Buckeyes will take on Notre Dame at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 23 on NBC and Peacock in a week four contest.

Ohio State beat the Fighting Irish 21-10 to open its 2022 season Sept. 3, surging ahead in the second half of a tightly-contested game at home. This year's rematch will take place on Notre Dame's home turf in South Bend, Ind.

Matchups with Indiana, Youngstown State and Western Kentucky will precede the Notre Dame showdown for the Buckeyes. They'll have an off-week following the road trip before resuming conference play.

OSU opens its season at Indiana Sept. 1.
