

Ohio State Stays At No. 6 In Coaches Poll

Regardless of a 71-point win, Ohio State could not move up in the Amway Coaches Poll, sticking at the No. 6 spot behind Clemson, Alabama, Georgia, Oklahoma and LSU, who each also stayed in their respective positions.

The Buckeyes continue to show a large gap between the top six teams and the rest of the field, with Ohio State earning 137 more points than seventh-place Auburn.

Wisconsin climbed up to No. 9 this week after a dominant victory against Michigan, who dropped 10 places to No. 20. Penn State and Iowa also jumped to No. 11 and No. 14, respectively.
