

Ohio State's Nov. 14 Matchup At Maryland Set For 3:30

Ohio State now has a starting time for its game four matchup with Maryland in College Park.

The Buckeyes will take on the Terrapins at 3:30 p.m. ET, airing on the Big Ten Network.

Maryland is 1-1 following a 45-44 upset victory over Minnesota on Oct. 30 where Alabama transfer quarterback Taulia Tagovailoa threw for four touchdowns and ran for two more in his second game with the Terps. Northwestern demolished Maryland 43-3 in the team's season opener.

Before welcoming the Buckeyes in week four, Maryland will travel to Penn State this week, while Ohio State takes on Rutgers at home.

The Scarlet and Gray seeks their seventh straight win against Maryland since the Terps joined their conference in 2014.

Ohio State cruised to a 73-14 beatdown of the Terrapins at home last season, but the Terps took the Buckeyes to the brink the last time they traveled to College Park. A heroic effort by Dwayne Haskins led the visiting Buckeyes to a 52-52 win at Maryland, where they narrowly escaped.

The Ohio State-Maryland matchup is set to be the first 3:30 game of the year for the Buckeyes since they began with a noon kick followed by consecutive night games.

What follows is a rundown of the history between Ohio State and Maryland since the Terps joined the Big Ten seven seasons ago:
