When the Buckeyes head down to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, for their Sept. 15 matchup with TCU, all eyes will be on them.

ESPN announced Wednesday its broadcast slate for the first three weeks of ABC's Saturday Night Football, including OSU's tilt with the Horned Frogs for an 8 p.m. ET kickoff at Jerry World.

Ohio State and TCU follow three prime-time games spread out across weeks one and two.

Alabama and Louisville begin the action Sept. 1 at 8 p.m. ET from Camping World Stadium in Orlando, followed by Miami and LSU the next day at 7:30 p.m. ET inside AT&T Stadium.

As for week two, Penn State and Pittsburgh take their in-state rivalry to the national stage Sept. 8 at 8 p.m. ET from Heinz Field in Pittsburgh.
