

Photos From Ohio State's 11th Practice Of Fall Camp

Ohio State opened a portion of practice to the media for the final time during fall camp on Wednesday afternoon, allowing those in attendance to shoot photos and gather offensive and defensive observations during the first five periods — which includes stretching and position drills.

Check out photos from practice below: