

Podcast: Nebraska Recap

We hopped in the studio bright and earlier Sunday morning to break down every part of Ohio State's season-opening 52-17 victory over Nebraska, including a deep look at Justin Fields' big day, Ohio State's electric receivers room, problems in the run game and some early defensive struggles.

To cap off the game talk, we handed out some Buckeye leaves to key performers, including a big time surprise pick from Wyatt that you'll just have to listen through to hear about. In the spirit of our usual Bucks Box segment, we also examined the box score, pulled out the stats that defined the game, and what we think they can tell us about these two teams.

We finished off the show with a quick look around the Big Ten, where Michigan rolled, Indiana pulled off a massive upset, and Maryland and Michigan State put up some truly despicable performances.
