

Podcast: Recruiting Update And A Look Into Iowa's Cuts (Feat. Andrew Lind and Robert Read)

Patrick Mayhorn welcomes BSB editor and recruiting expert Andrew Lind to the show to talk about Tyleik Williams, defensive line recruiting, the 2022 tight end situation and Al Washington's freakishly athletic 2022 linebacker class. Also, some brief talk about the mess that is future eligibility rules, the potential of a five-year, starting quarterback Kyle McCord era to make up for the years lost with Dwayne Haskins and Justin Fields, and the world of seventh-year seniors.

Then, Patrick is joined by Robert Read of the Daily Iowan to talk about Iowa's decision to cut men's gymnastics, men's and women's swimming and diving and men's tennis, what went into the decision and how other Big Ten teams may be similarly impacted without a football season to generate revenue.
