

Recap: No. 3 Ohio State Starts Fast, Badger Wisconsin 52-21

C.J. Stroud threw for five touchdowns, two apiece tight end Cade Stover and Emeka Egbuka, and No. 3 Ohio State used a big first quarter to dominate Wisconsin 52-21 in Ohio Stadium on Saturday in the Big Ten opener for each.

The Buckeyes (4-0, 1-0) got four touchdowns and a field goal in their first five possession to take a 31-7 halftime lead. They led 21-0 barely 11 minutes into the game on a 2-yard run by Miyan Williams and the first two career TDs for Stover, a converted linebacker.

Stroud was 17 for 27 for 281 yards and an interception. Egbuka made six catches for 118 yards and Stover's four receptions gained 51 yards.

The Buckeyes got 121 rushing yards on 21 carries from TreVeyon Henderson and another 101 and two scores by Williams on 11 rushes before a crowd of 105,473 on hand for the third home night game of the season

Wisconsin (2-2, 0-1) quarterback Graham Mertz passed for 94 yards, completing 11 of 20 with a TD, and an interception while Braelon Allen ran for 165 yards, including one of 75 yards to make it 52-21 halfway through the fourth quarter.

How It Happened

The Buckeyes rectified an ominous start to drive 88 yards in six plays, using 2:41 to take a 7-0 lead on Williams' 2-yard run up the gut.

Chip Trayanum mishandled the opening kickoff and was able to gain 5 yards before being tackled at the 12. Henderson ran for 3 before Marvin Harrison Jr. broke free for an 18-yard catch. Stover followed with a 22-yard grab to the Wisconsin 45.

Henderson rushed for 10 and Egbuka moved the ball to the 2 with a 33-yard reception to set up Williams on the next play.

The defense stepped up on the Badgers' first possession when Oklahoma State transfer Tanner McAlister intercepted Mertz at the Wisconsin 46 and made a return of 30 yards.

Henderson ran for 3 and with the next snap, Stroud rolled left and threw back to an open Stover who powered his way into the end zone to extend the lead to 14-0 at 8:54 for his first career TD.

The Buckeyes chunked their way to another score to pad the margin to 21-0 at the 3:55 mark with Stover once again the recipient of a pass from Stroud. This time he was open for a 2-yarder because Stroud faked a handoff and bootlegged right.

OSU went 70 yards in 3:24 and seven plays. Stroud had completions of 13 and 11 to Egbuka and Harrison for 13. Stover caught a 13-yard pass to the Wisconsin 28 and Henderson gained 16 and then 10 prior to the TD.

The Buckeyes had 210 total yards to 23 for the Badgers in the first quarter while accumulating 12 first downs.

Williams capped a hard-driving series with a 3-yard rush to make it 28-0 at 13:33 of the second quarter. The Buckeyes marched 67 yards on eight plays. The key one was a third-and-4 from the OSU 39 when Harrison had a 16-yard catch to the Wisconsin 45.

At that point, Williams took over with runs of 14, 7 and 21 to the 3. He scored on the next play.

Wisconsin stemmed the onslaught with a time-consuming (4:55) series to go 72 yards in 10 plays, capped by a 1-yard plunge by Mertz for a 28-7 score at 8:31.

A defensive pass interference on cornerback Jyaire Brown put the ball on the Badgers 37. Mertz later ran for 11 and on 3rd-and-9 from the OSU 40 found Skyler Bell for 26 to the 14. From there, Allen gained 13 yards on two carries and Mertz took it in from there.

Ohio State decided to play keep-away when it got the ball back and held it for 6:11 and used 13 plays only to settle for a 25-yard field goal by Noah Ruggles with 2:20 left in the half to put the lead at 31-7.

The drive started well with a 25-yard gallop by Williams to the Wisconsin 45. Williams on fourth-and-1 ripped off 9 yards to the 27 and needing a yard on third down, fullback/tight end Mitch Rossi pushed his way for 3 yards to the 15 but the drive stalled at the 7.

Late in the first half, Stroud was intercepted at the OSU 48 by John Torchio. On third down, McAlister broke up a pass intended for Bell at the 4 to end the threat.

Allen on the Badgers' first play, burst through for a 75-yard TD run with 7:11 to as they pulled to within 52-21.

More Of The Same

After Wisconsin punted on its initial series of the third quarter, Stroud's third TD pass went to Julian Fleming for 12 yards and a 38-7 lead at 9:35. During the eight-play, 72-yard, 3:38 drive, Egbuka snagged a pass for 18 yards but it was Fleming's catch of 31 yards to the 17 on third-and-4 from the UW 48 that was the key. Henderson carried twice to the 12 before Stroud found Fleming at the 5 and he took several defenders with him across the line.

After an Egbuka 10-yard punt return, the Buckeyes needed four plays to go 38 yards for a 45-7 advantage that took 2:02. Henderson rushed for 7 and 4, Fleming made a 19-yard catch to the 8 and Egbuka finished it with a ball by Stroud that was drilled between two Wisconsin players with 2:22 left in the third quarter.

The Badgers responded with a long drive of 14 plays to go 80 yards in 7:32. A 2-yard pass to Jackson Aker made it 45-14 at 9:46 of the fourth quarter. A 19-yard catch by Isaac Guerendo on third down to the OSU 6 aided the drive.

Egbuka made a 32-yard catch-and-run to put the score at 52-14 with 7:21 left. He caught the ball across the middle and the 18 and no one could catch him.

It took five plays to go 75 yards in 2:25 with a third-down pass interference moving the chains to the 32 on the play previous to the score.
