

Spring Game Availability Report: Babb Out, Proctor Expected To Play

Ohio State's spring game is set for a 12:05 p.m. kickoff, the Buckeyes will be without several players as the Scarlet offense takes on the Gray defense.

Head coach Ryan Day announced at the beginning of spring practice that several players would be out, and all remain on the list with the exception of defensive lineman Jacolbe Cowan.

Notable additions to the injury report include wide receiver Kamryn Babb and linebacker Palaie Gaoteote. Babb suffered a "bump in the road" a couple of weeks back, according to Day, but should be good to go moving forward.

Safety Josh Proctor, who has worked his way back from a fractured leg and has participated in the last few spring practices, was not listed on the report.
